THE BOSS ARBITRARY in local politics must be abolished.

THE downing of boodleism demands the defeat of the Democratic ticket.

THE Municipal Assembly has been run as a private enterprise long enough.

MR. BLAINE'S smartness is severely strained by the Italian imbroglio.

THE downing of spoils bosom demands the defeat of the Democratic ticket.

JUst at present the time schedule of the great news events is arranged to favor the evening paper.

It was supposed that with the passage of the McKinley bill strikes among the pro-tected industries would be unknown.

THE attention of St. Louisans is concentrated just now upon the extinction of the political Mafia which disgraces this town.

THE voters of St. Louis will decide on Tuesday next whether franchises shall be sold for the benefit of the city or of the bondholders.

THE is a painful lack of money for the respectable end of the Republican ticket, but the bondholders end is taking care of itself. It can afford to do it.

We do have lynching bees in this country now and then, but how about Italy's spectacular bandit who works for the knife and the rifle for boodie only?

In our extra this morning and the regular edition this afternoon the Post-Dispatch meets all demands of the public for the first news and all the news with regard to the Pittsburgh riot.

THE circulation of a newspaper means its whole circulation, not a part of its circulation. The advertiser is entitled to know all the facts relating to the circulation of any paper which solicits his advertising.

THE scheme of the bosses to fool their party voters into supporting their party tickets and then combine on their tools on both tickets is as clear as daylight. It is a blind Democrat or Republican who cannot see through it.

WHAT with the results of the Mafia methods in New Orleans and the Molly Maguireism of the Hungarian strikers in the coke district some of the recent additions to the population of this country are giving us altogether too much trouble.

THE killing of seven strikers and the wounding of many others by the guards at the Frick Coke Works in Pittsburgh is another shocking occurrence which follows close upon the New Orleans massacre and gives occasion for cumulative regret. As in the case of the first mentioned event, the Post-Dispatch was the first newspaper to present the news to St. Louisans.

THE action of Italy in the matter of the New Orleans massacre is hasty and the most painful may be untenable, but the most patriotic American must admit that she has placed the United States in a most humiliating attitude as a country which must confess that civilization has been outraged and law violated within its border without the power to correct the evil.

BLAINE TO IMPERIAL.

In his note to the Marquis IMPERIAL of the hasty recall of Baron FAYA, Mr. BLAINE states only the simple truth when he says that neither the Government of the United States nor any State Government can guarantee the punishment of criminals. Here, as in England and all other free countries, governments can only make laws for the punishment of crime and provide for the prosecution of criminals, and their punishment if found guilty by a jury of the violence.

The law requires a unanimous agreement of twelve men that the accused is guilty, and as it gives him the benefit of every reasonable doubt, the evidence required to satisfy twelve men of his guilt cannot always be produced, even in cases where the public generally holds him guilty. That was manifest in the acquittal of the men accused of murdering the New Orleans Chief of Police. Neither the demand of the State Government nor the fierce outcry of the local population for the blood of those men forced the jury to convict them. For that reason they were murdered, and the Italian Government must either trust the courts to punish the lynchers, or its demand for their punishment must be construed as a demand that our Government shall Lynch them—have them executed without due process of law.

Of course the Italian Government will disavow any such demand. It knows that the machinery of justice miscarries occasionally in all countries; that no government can guarantee the unfailing punishment of every crime against its own citizens or even the murder of its own officers, as the Hennessy case shows. All any government can do for the protection of Italian subjects is to afford them the same protection of the laws as is afforded its own citizens in the courts.

ITALIAN diplomacy has got into a passion and blundered in this matter by asking more than any government would concede before the results of the pending legal and official investigation are known. But Mr. BLAINE's admission as to the immunity of lynchers from punishment in this country amounts to a shameful impeachment of American society and American government. It is a confession that acquittal of an American jury is no protection to a man when an incensed rabble thirsts for his blood. It is a confession that the Federal Government has not provided in its own statutes and courts remedies for the protection of foreign subjects against such outrages as the local officials and juries of excited communities are disdained to punish.

PUBLIC VS. PRIVATE INTERESTS.

The exposure in yesterday's Post-Dispatch of the way in which Messrs. COMFORT and VOGEL, the two Councilmen who were renominated by the Republicans, combined business and politics in their amendment to the bill granting valuable additional franchises to the Benton-Bellefontaine Street Railway line gives a sample of the sort of work which demonstrates the necessity of the Independent movement.

An amendment to the bill had been introduced which would have insured the payment to the city by the road in exchange for the privilege granted it of $50,000. Mr. VOGEL had voted for the amendment upon its introduction in the Council and Mr. COMFORT against it, but when the bill returned from the House of Delegates with the amendment struck out, both men concurred in that action and the city lost $50,000. Aside from considerations of a private nature which may suggest themselves as entering into the matter, the bill of the railway was backed by strong political influences which could be useful to candidates in the approaching election. Thus the interests of the city were sacrificed for personal considerations.

The similar instances in which the city has been victimized are so many and outrageous that they have almost ceased to have their proper effect upon the mind of citizens. The time has come, however, to put a stop to such work, and to demand that the city's interests shall be protected and advanced in all Municipal Assembly legislation. The opportunity to carry this demand into effect is presented in the candidacy of the clean, honest men whose names are on the Independent Municipal ticket.

OTHER MOBS AT WORK.

The labor mobs that are destroying property and resorting to armed coercion to enforce an arbitrary scale of wages on other laborers and on the employers of labor in Pennsylvania, are not only waging war on the most precious rights and interests of labor, but they are forcing the issue between order and anarchy, between a Government of liberal laws made by the people and the rule of mob violence.

There can be but one result of such conflicts between mobocracy and civil order in this country. The mob in this case is composed of poor, ignorant, misguided and desperate men. They will be slaughtered and scattered by the Sheriff's posse and the militia, and the leaders surviving will be hunted down and punished without mercy as assassins and enemies of society.

But their crime is the same as that of the mob that lynched the acquitted Italians in New Orleans, and is even more excusable on account of the ignorance and misery of the strikers. They are but following the example of the leading citizens of New Orleans in substituting mob-feeling or frenzy for law and appealing to brute force for justice instead of to the law and the courts. All who applaud and justify the act of the New Orleans mob should applaud and justify the acts of the Pennsylvania mob, but will not do it. Those who think the better class of people have a right to take the law into their own hands are generally among the first to call for bloody vengeance on a labor mob.

UNLESS the revolution in Chili should be brought to a conclusion in short order, there will be nothing left of that unhappy Republic except ruined cities and deserted lands. The warfare which prevails there is a bloody butchery, in which even helpless women and children are not spared and fire and sack add to its horrors. Reports from Chili recount barbarities which would shame Central Africans.

The foolish plan of erecting a statue of twelve men that the accused is guilty, and as it gives him the benefit of every reasonable doubt, the evidence required to satisfy twelve men of his guilt cannot always be produced, even in cases where the public generally holds him guilty. That was manifest in the acquittal of the men accused of murdering the New Orleans Chief of Police. Neither the demand of the State Government nor the fierce outcry of the local population for the blood of those men forced the jury to convict them. For that reason they were murdered, and the Italian Government must either trust the courts to punish the lynchers, or its demand for their punishment must be construed as a demand that our Government shall Lynch them—have them executed without due process of law.

MEN OF MARK.

GEN. GREENLY will retire from the Weather Bureau early in July.

SENATOR ELECT FELTON is a millionaire, so he won't feel lonely.

MR. DEPEW is said to have been offered $100,000 a year to edit a newspaper.

NEED WRIGHT, the London revivalist, is coming to this country to lecture and hold services.

LAWRENCE BARRETT's life was insured for $100,000, and it is understood that his estate is valued at $100,000.

MR. McCARTHY has already found the task of leading the Irish party too much for him. His health has broken down.

SENATOR FERGUSON will drive a trained moccasin against a trotting horse for $200 a side at the State Fair to be held at Sioux Falls, S. D., next fall.

BECAUSE Roger Q. Mills does not wear cuffs a TROY paper comes to the conclusion that he is not available as a candidate for the speakership.

PARNELL ARNEY of Garneau, the Wolverine Methodist who raises good trotting stock and gives trotting matinees, has lately conducted a successful revival.

BARRY WALL, the duke of New York, has so far fallen from grace as to have been sentenced to a three years' exclusion from the New York Club.

SENATOR GORDON of Georgia recently met with a heavy loss at his Taylor County stock farm, The Flint River rose suddenly in the night and 300 of Gen. Gordon's broad mares were drowned. The loss is about $60,000.

WHO HAS BEEN INDORSED.
 "Who have you indorsed?" he was asked. "None." "I am told that you have indorsed me," replied Mr. McCARTHY. "I do not know whether any further indorsements will be made. The primary object is to defeat Grassmuck, Comfort and Vogel, and we are of course in agreement with the League." The only class that we oppose are political leeches, who make politics a business. Among them we have spotted Grassmuck, Comfort and Vogel, Republicans, and we will defeat them. We are of course in agreement with the League.

"All that is right," said the organizer, "is raised by the Republican Central Committee for political effect only. I am a Catholic myself, and am denounced as a lie by the statement that the American Patriotic League is anti-Catholic and anti-Catholic.

THE full ritual would be open to the public at the present time but such a thing would be a scandal. The League stands for the order. A two-thirds vote must be cast to any move of any importance, and this holds good in this case.

BOUND BY AN OATH.

Complete Expose of the American League and Its Purposes.

WHAT THE MEMBERS ARE PLEDGED TO DO IN THE COMING ELECTION.

Comfort, Vogel and Grassmuck Are to Be Their Victims—Four Democrats to Receive Their Support—The Organizers of the League Emphatically Deny It Is Anti-Catholic.

There are in St. Louis to day 10,000 members of the American Patriotic League, 7,000 of whom are working, laboring or cashing in for political office who receives the endorsement of two-thirds of the members of the organization.

This startling information is given by the St. Louis organizer, who has an office in the Laclede Building, and who wishes to correct the false impression that the society is anti-Catholic. The organizer is a member of St. Patrick's Church and has never been questioned. The League is not designed to take part in this local campaign, but is taking a hand to defeat three men who are particularly unpopular with the membership—Messrs. Comfort, Grassmuck and Vogel. A strong denial is entered that the League is in any way, shape or form, desiring or attempting to make a political organization issuing on this plan.

The information of the Post-Dispatch requests that his name be withheld for the present, or until he has the permission of the League membership to do early lynched by a crowd of infernalists on their way back to jail again on Nov. 25, 1860, a bold and perfidious attempt was made. Assisted by a prisoner named Queen, they broke through the inner wall and descended the stairs to the rope, and fractured his leg in the fall. David followed like a dog, and his arm, broken in two places, David had to give up, while Joe was found partially disabled from the fall. It was soon after this man to act queerly, and in consideration of his health, suffering and agony of soul he was about evenly divided as to sanity.

MADE NO CONFESSION.
There has not been even a hint of what the man did, and he still has nothing to tell and that the efforts to escape simply because he was hanged for a crime committed is understandable. At another trial was made to the court to release the counsel stating a clew to the whereabouts of such bench, whose confession creased, and not until the drop added of a pardon abandoned.

RAILWAY MEASURES IN COLORADO.

Denver, Colo., April 2.—It has been the case in previous sessions of the Legislature that the Senate has also failed to pass a railroad bill satisfactory to the people. The defeat of the Colorado Central in the Senate last year was a great disappointment.

Senator Banning created a decided ripple yesterday by charging that the lobby and the money it had in charge caused the defeat of the bill. There are interesting times ahead in the Senate.

THE SENATE WANTS TO DEVOTE A WEEK AT THE HUSTINGS.

A COMPROMISE AGREED UPON—Good Work Done by the Democratic House—World's Fair Bill Likely to Pass in the Arkansas—Bodieism in Colorado—The Day at the State Capitol.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 2.—The Conference Committee agreed on an adjournment from Friday noon until Wednesday at 10 o'clock in the morning. The Republican Senate, which favored an adjournment from 10 o'clock for a week to go home and vote on Tuesday, was chagrined to accept the Conference Committee's report, but got around it by hustling through the committee, passing important bills because of the lack of a quorum even to-day, and adjourning until 10 o'clock to-morrow evening, which means no session at all during the hour, and practically none before next Thursday, as very few of them will get there with the election sprees on Thursday night so as to get back here by Friday morning.

The Democratic House will hold its session to-morrow as usual, though many of its members left on the noon train to-day, and there will be a light house to-morrow.

In the House, Mr. Moore, from the Committee on Agriculture, reported on five bills on the old chestnut of indemnity to the owners of sheep that are killed or maimed. One out of the five was recommended for passage, as well as the bill making appropriation for the State Board of Agriculture and for county fairs, and what is known as the "Farmers' Improvement Bill" to improve sanitation and agriculture was referred to the Committee on Farm Drainage, and the bills for the improvement of beet sugar, for the improvement of fences and hedges, were ordered to lie on the table. A number of bills for the regulation of township affairs and court matters were reported on and the World's Fair Committee. The Committee on Appropriations and the Committee on Appropriations and referred to the World's Fair Committee. The Committee on Corporations recommended the bill providing for the weekly payment of employees and the free school bill from Mr. Cook's committee was recommended to the Committee on Rules.

Two dozen bills were introduced, making 60 in the House. Some of these were acceptable in proportion to the number of bills introduced, the State, one to elect School Directors and boards by the people. Others were to regulate county or township inspection companies, assessment of certain collection of taxes, and ticket brokers, telegraph companies, the fraudulent obtaining of liquors, inspection of steam boilers, to put the express companies under control of the State Board of Agriculture and Warrenton Commissioners, the administration of food and of cigarettes, to appropriate for the Horticultural Society, for the propagation and protection of fast growing trees, and much more.

ROVENS, Ark., April 2.—A correspondent at Fayetteville, Ark., a—That an injustice to Capt. John P. Staggs, who was elected to a third reading. It is believed that a majority of the Senate is opposed to making the appointment. The remainder of the morning session was taken up in considering the appropriate bill.

NO ROWS AT SLIGO.

The Election in the Irish City Conducted Quietly.

TROOPS AND POLICE READY TO PUT DOWN RIOTERS.

The Kaiser's Telegram of Congratulation to Bismarck—Austro-German Commercial Congress—Why the Ex-Chancellor Desires to Return to the Reichstag—Current Events in Europe.

ST. LOUIS, April 2.—The Sligo election for the selection of a member to fill the seat in Parliament from North Sligo, made vacant by the death of the late Mr. Peter McDonald, is progressing in a steady, quiet and orderly manner. During the morning Mr. Parnell made a last effort to arouse the enthusiasm of his partisans by driving through the streets in an open carriage. His appearance, however, drew forth no applause from either the street passengers or corner loafers. Up to the present moment nothing has occurred to demand especial police effort, much less the call for the interposition of the troops of the garrison. There are not wanting, however, those who predict that as the day wanes alterations will occur of such a nature as to make possible the precipitation of a serious riot.

THE PHENIX PARK MURDERERS.

LOWDOWNS, April 2.—Accounts of the removal of prisoners from the Downpatrick Jail say that there was a great crowd present to see the men led out in procession as they came up and when one of the prisoners said, "God save Ireland!" a great many of the crowd joined in. Fitzharriet attracted the most attention, by looking strong and healthy, while MacDonagh was more feeble. The prisoners and their guards left the station on a special train with the convicted men to preclude the necessity of changing cars at Belfast, and as the cars pulled out the crowd that the convicted men sang songs of cheer and loyalty.

KAISER TO PRINCE.

EMPEROR WILLIAM CONGRATULATES BISMARCK—GERMAN AFFAIRS.

BERLIN, April 2.—The telegram of birthday congratulation from the Kaiser to Prince Bismarck is universally recognized as a graceful act on the part of your Excellency, and as tending to soften if not efface the remaining asperity of his attitude. It is stated that when Prince Bismarck received the imperial message he stood unmoved, where it was being read to him, and was deeply gratified. The Princess is also represented as having been even more pleased than her husband. The celebrations that Germany has been keeping in honor of the Emperor, the opinion of the newspapers is that Bismarck was right when he said that, as Minister, he could not have commanded such testimony of popular good will. A Hamburg dispatch says it is believed that King Edward and Bismarck upon visiting Altona, were received by the two will come to a frank understanding of their respective attitudes.

A SIGNIFICANT INCIDENT.

There was a general absence of the social democracy from the trades' procession at Lubeck, during the Emperor's visit Wednesday, and the circumstance is said to have been due to the influence of the visitors. It is thought that this may have been due to the fact, early in the week, the police made several arrests of men who have been prominent in the movement. The party says it is believed that King Edward and Bismarck upon visiting Altona, were received by the two will come to a frank understanding of their respective attitudes.

A PRESENT FROM THE KING.

The Kaiser is a particularly interested human in the case of the young man who was arrested for presenting a petition to his Majesty, while he was out walking a few days ago. The Kaiser caused the matter to be referred to the Imperial chancery, and it is thought that the young man had been subjected to serious injustice for which, however, there appeared to be no legal remedy. It is stated that the two countries are to be presented with a substantial sum of money from the Royal purse. It is also stated, however, that the police have been instructed to prevent such a compensation future.

The Austro-German commercial conference at Vienna has resumed its sittings. The delegates of Austria-Hungary have accepted the German suggestion of something now remains to be done but to draft a commercial treaty. There is, however, some uneasiness lest Prince Bismarck should attack the treaty, and it is suspected that it is to do just that particular thing that he desires to enter the Reichstag.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, April 2.—The correspondent of the "Chronicle" at Calcutta says that the released son of Major-General Macleod, who was captured by the rebels, has declared that his brother, the present Rajah, would not kill his prisoners, but would hold them as hostages.

The only cause for fear comes from the uncontrollable rebels.

The despatch which offers to send another brother to induce the ruling Rajah to release the prisoners.

SAFETY MATTERS RESUMED.

PANTS, April 2.—The Minister of Marine, M. Barbez, has suspended the certificates of several masters of fishing vessels from Fecamp, and has withdrawn the certificate of one master for violent assertion of their rights over the Newfoundland banks by firing upon fishermen. The masters concerned are still at sea.

COLLISION IN SOUTH ST. LOUIS.

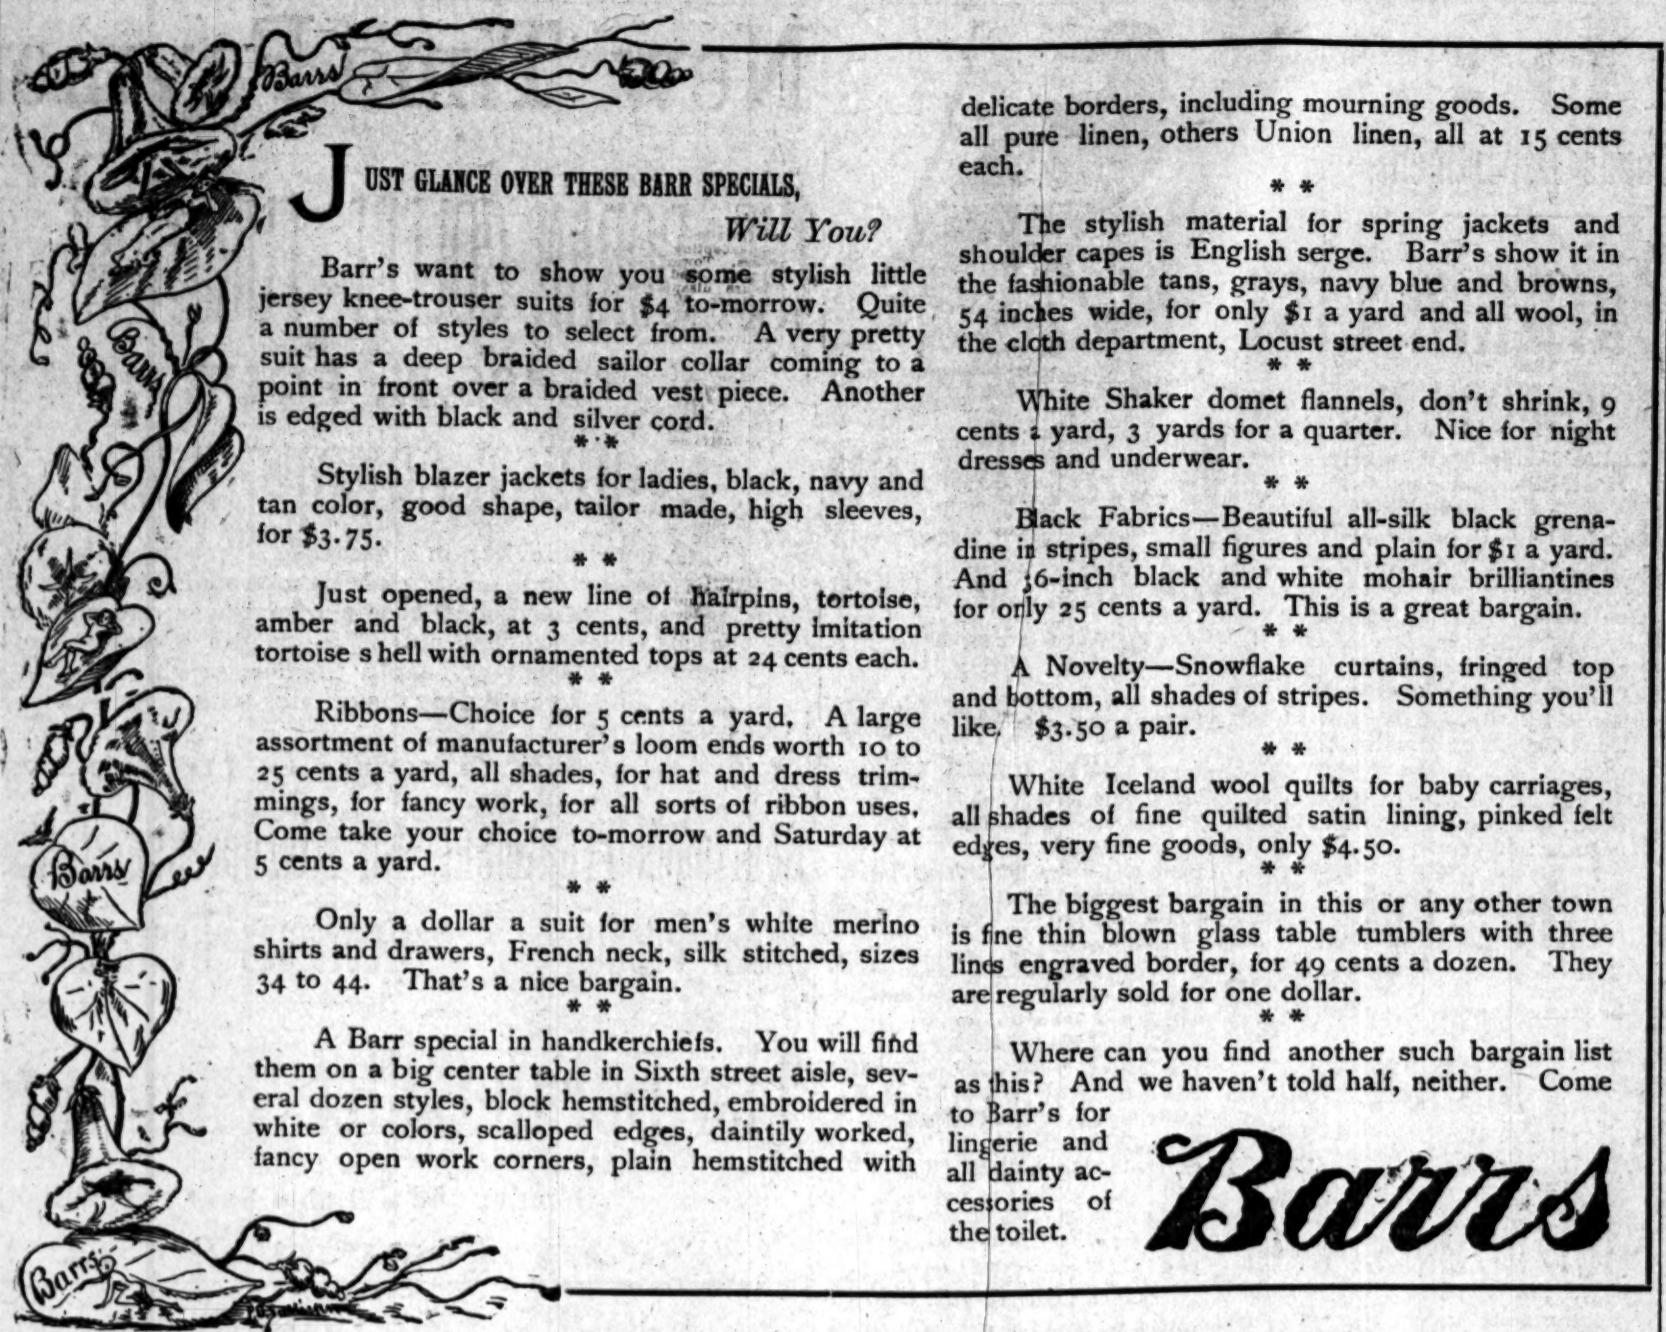

About 9 o'clock this morning a team of horses attached to a heavy spring wagon belonging to Louis Funs, a farmer, while standing on Broadway, near Rowen street, became frightened at an electric car and ran away. At Broadway and Robert avenue the horses collided with a butcher's wagon belonging to and driven by Nick Haas, overturning the vehicle and damaging it considerably.

The wagon was heavily loaded with meat and vegetables which were scattered on the muddy streets. A number of colored children who saw the accident lost no time in picking up beef and veal roasts, steaks, chops, etc., chose enough to last a day or two. The farm wagon was also badly damaged, and one of its horses was hurt so badly that it was deemed necessary to remove him from the wagon and drive home without him.

ST. LOUISANS SHAKEN UP.

KISS ALICE GODDARD SHOWS GREAT COURAGE IN A RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Mr. George T. Cram's Account of the Wreck Near Pittsburg, Pa., Sunday Morning, in which a Number of St. Louisans Had an Exciting Experience.

Mr. Geo. T. Cram, one of the St. Louisans who figured in the wreck of the Pennsylvania train at Devil's Gap early Sunday morning, returned to the city this morning in excellent health and spirits, none the worse for his exciting experience. On coming down town this morning Mr. Cram did not call on Mr. George H. Goddard of the Texas Coal Co. to see him. Mrs. Alice, however, suffered a fracture of a rib in the wreck. The young lady is now in New York with her mother and sister getting along nicely. When the accident occurred, she was traveling with her mother and sister to New York, from where they intended to sail yesterday to the City Dispensary in the patrol wagon, and there the bruise on the side of his head was found to be very slight and he was taken to Dr. Prewitt's office on the corner, where his injuries, which are not dangerous, were dressed.

John Williams, while under the influence of liquor, fell from grip car No. 9 of the Citizens' Franklin Avenue line at Broadway and Pine streets at 7:10 o'clock last evening and struck the ground with the right side of his head. Williams was given a ride to the City Dispensary in the patrol wagon, and there the bruise on the side of his head was found to be very slight and he was taken to Dr. Prewitt's office on the corner, where his injuries, which are not dangerous, were dressed.

The electric lines did not succeed in maiming any passenger yesterday, but at 4:30 p.m. Herbert Saries, aged 11 years, residing with his parents at No. 220 Adams street, while alighting from grip car No. 12 of the White Rock line at Twenty-second street and Market, sprained his ankle and cut his left hand. His hand was badly cut and the ankle sprained.

The wreck was caused, as told in the dispatches, by the speading of the rails. There were four flatcars used to hold the train and the track was turned over on their sides on the brink of an embankment, fully twenty-five feet high. Had the cars gone down the incline the loss of life would certainly have been greater. As it was nobody was injured or mortally hurt.

MR. CRAM'S ACCOUNT.

Mr. Cram gave an interesting account of the wreck to a Post-Dispatch reporter this morning. He was brought to the scene of the accident and after a short time got into the Washington Avenue Blue Line, while going north on Fourteenth street collided with a buggy owned and driven by J. B. Shriner, which was going west on Pine street. The buggy hit the rear of the grip car, causing it to stop. The driver, however, was unharmed.

The electric line of the city being rather small did not injure anyone, but gained recognition by being run into.

Car No. 25 of the Benton-Bellefontaine line was run into at Tenth and Morgan streets at 4:30 o'clock last evening and the driver, John Condon, was severely injured.

Two severe pipe kiln setters, Apparatus Black & Post's employees, Pacific H. H. and Edward L. Johnson, were severely injured.
